- (10) Making, uttering, or dealing in, or selling or using for postal purpose, any fictitious stamp; or possessing any fictitious stamp; or making or possessing any instrument for manufacturing fictitious stamps (section 263A).

[s 243] Possession of Indian coin by person who knew it to be counterfeit when he became possessed thereof.

Whoever, fraudulently or with intent that fraud may be committed, is in possession of counterfeit coin, which is a counterfeit of ³⁰[Indian coin], having known at the time when he became possessed of it that it was counterfeit, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

COMMENT.—

For an offence under section 243, IPC, 1860, it has to be established by the prosecution that accused fraudulently or with intent that fraud may be committed, came into possession of counterfeit coins which were counterfeit of Indian coins, having known at the time he became possessed of them that they were counterfeit.³¹ Where the coins were not counterfeit coins but were in the process of being made counterfeit coins, section 243 has no application.³²
